Committee Participation

Members have the opportunity to develop and enhance their leadership skills through participation in committee leadership roles and task force and work group appointments.

Networking & Events

Attend member-organized events throughout the year that cover a wide range of interests. Events support interaction among members, affiliates and vendors. Members are encouraged to provide input on future events or programs they'd like to attend that would assist them with their businesses.

Membership Meetings & Luncheons

These meetings are held for the benefit of the membership at large and include programs showcasing timely topics, awards, renown speakers, lunch, required membership votes and more.

Awards & Recognition

BAR's members achieve a great deal that deserves to be recognized. Each year we recognize an Affiliate or Affiliate Associate member who exemplifies professionalism, knowledge, and demonstrates a high degree of ethics and service to Realtors®. Annually we host our Affiliate Members at an appreciation lunch or dinner. We also encourage members to pursue REALTOR® Magazine's Good Neighbor Award, which recognizes "extraordinary commitments to improving the quality of life in their communities."

Professional Management & Expert Answers

BAR's top-notch, professional staff ensures tools, products, programs, services and other member benefits are delivered in the most cost-effective manner. On-staff experts field your questions and guide you to the best possible answers. Our community outreach program brings the association to you and your office, to share information and gain feedback.
